Written or electronic notice to or from our managers constitutes notice to or from us. If anyone else has guaranteed performance of this Lease Contract, a separate Lease Contract Guaranty for each guarantor is attached.

2. OCCUPANTS. The apartment will be occupied only by you and (list all other occupants not signing the Lease Contract):

As permitted by law, you understand and agree that we may provide access to any occupant listed under paragraph 2 (Occupants) in the absence of any written document that withdraws such authorization.

3. LEASE TERM. The initial term of the Lease Contract begins on the 16th day of October, 2021, and ends at 11:59 P.M. the 15th day of October, 2022. This Lease Contract will automatically renew month-to-month unless either party gives at least 60 days written notice of termination or intent to move-out as required by paragraph 43 (Move-Out Notice). In the event this Lease Contract has renewed on a month-to-month basis, it shall continuously renew each month thereafter until either party provides the other with a written notice of termination at least 30 days before the end of any such renewal term in accordance with the requirements set forth in paragraph 43 (Move-Out Notice).

4. SECURITY DEPOSIT. Unless modified by addenda, the total security deposit at the time of execution of this Lease Contract for all residents in the apartment is $ 150.00, due on or before the date this Lease Contract is signed, to be administered in accordance with the North Carolina Tenant Security Deposit Act, N.C.G.S. § 42-50 et seq.

Otherwise, you must pay your rent on or before the 1st day of each month (due date) with no grace period. Cash is unacceptable without our prior written permission. You must not withhold or offset rent unless expressly authorized by statute. We may, at our option, require at any time that you pay all rent and other sums in cash, certified or cashier's check, money order, or one monthly check rather than multiple checks. At our discretion, we may convert any and all checks via the Automated Clearing House (ACH) system for the purposes of collecting payment. Rent is not considered accepted, if the payment/ACH is rejected, does not clear, or is stopped for any reason. If you don't pay all rent on or before the 5th day of the month (late fee cannot be charged before the 6th day of the month), you'll pay a late charge of 5% of the rental payment or $15.00, whichever is greater—or, where your rent is subsidized in any way, the late fee shall not exceed $15.00 or an amount equal to 5% of your share of the rental payment. The late fee shall be considered additional rent and you will owe such late fee without us having to demand it from you. You'll also pay a charge of $ 35.00 or the maximum amount allowed by law as of the date the check is tendered to us (whichever is greater) for each returned check or rejected electronic payment. If you don't pay rent on time, you'll be delinquent and all remedies under this Lease Contract will be authorized. We'll also have all other remedies for such violation.

7. UTILITIES. We'll pay for the following items, if checked and if permitted by law:

- [] water [] gas [] electricity [] master antenna [] wastewater [] trash [] cable TV [] other

You'll pay for all other utilities, related deposits, and any charges, fees, or services on such utilities. You are responsible for having all utilities for which You are paying the provider directly, set up in Your name prior to taking possession of the Premises. You must not allow utilities to be disconnected—including disconnection for not paying your bills—until the lease term or renewal period ends as such failure constitutes a default of the Lease. Cable channels that are provided may be changed during the lease term if the change applies to all residents. Utilities may be used only for normal household purposes and must not be wasted. If your electricity is ever interrupted, you must use only battery-operated lighting. If any utilities are submetered for the apartment, or prorated by an allocation formula, we will attach an addendum to this Lease Contract in compliance with state agency rules or city ordinance.

8. INSURANCE. We do not maintain insurance to cover your personal property or personal injury. We are not responsible to any resident, guest, or occupant for damage or loss of personal property or personal injury from (including but not limited to) fire, smoke, rain, flood, water and pipe leaks, hail, ice, snow, lightning, wind, explosions, earthquake, interruption of utilities, theft, hurricane, negligence of other residents, occupants, or invited/uninvited guests or vandalism unless otherwise required by law.

In addition, we urge all Residents, and particularly those residing in coastal areas, areas near rivers, and areas prone to flooding, to obtain flood insurance. Renter’s insurance may not cover damage to your property due to flooding. A flood insurance resource which may be available includes the National Flood Insurance Program managed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

We require do not require you to get your own insurance for losses to your personal property or injuries due to theft, fire, water damage, pipe leaks and the like.

If renter’s insurance is required, you shall maintain at all times during the Term of this Lease, at your sole expense, a renter’s insurance policy, or its equivalent, issued by a licensed insurance company in a minimum policy coverage amount of $ 100000.00, and you shall provide us with proof of such insurance to our satisfaction. If you allow your renter’s insurance coverage to lapse, we may retain a policy for you and assess the premium to the you as additional rent which is due and payable with the monthly rent.

If no box is checked, renter’s insurance is not required.

Additionally, you are [check one] required to purchase personal liability insurance, and you shall provide us with proof of such insurance to our satisfaction not required to purchase personal liability insurance. If no box is checked, personal liability insurance is not required. If required, failure to maintain personal liability insurance throughout your tenancy, including any renewal periods and/or lease extensions, may be an incurable breach of this Lease Contract and may result in the termination of tenancy and eviction and/or any other remedies as provided by this Lease Contract or state law. You understand and agree that should you allow your liability coverage to lapse, expire or otherwise be terminated, we may, at our sole option (in lieu of declaring an incurable breach), elect to purchase a liability policy on your behalf and assess the premium to you as additional rent which is due and payable with the monthly rent.

You acknowledge that no portion of the rent paid by you under this agreement will be specifically allocated for the purchase of the owner’s structural fire insurance, though the owner may use a portion of gross rental proceeds obtained from all rental units in the community to purchase such structural fire insurance, and in such an event, that you are in no way a co-insured under any such policy.

9. LOCKS AND LATCHES. Keyed lock(s) will be rekeyed after the prior resident moves out. The rekeying will be done before you move into your apartment. You agree not to install additional or different locks or latches on any doors or windows of the premises, unless we have consented in writing to such installation.

You may at any time ask us to change or rekey locks or latches during the Lease Term. We must comply with those requests, but you must pay for them, unless otherwise provided by law. You agree that any resident may request, either orally or in writing, that we install new or different locks for the premises. You further understand and agree that once we install new or different locks we shall provide keys to the replacement locks to any other residents and/or authorized occupants in the absence of a lawful reason to deny them such keys.

Payment for Rekeying, Repairs, Etc. You must pay for all repairs or replacements arising from misuse or damage to devices by you or your occupants, or guests during your occupancy. You may be required to pay in advance if we notify you within a reasonable time after your request that you are more than 30 days delinquent in reimbursing us for repairing or replacing a device which was misused or damaged by you, your guest or an occupant; or if you have requested that we repair or change or rekey the same device during the 30 days preceding your request and we have complied with your request. Otherwise, you must pay immediately after the work is completed.

Special Provisions and “What If” Clauses

10. SPECIAL PROVISIONS. The following special provisions and any addenda or written rules furnished to you at or before signing will become a part of this Lease Contract and will supersede any conflicting provisions of this printed lease form.

See special provisions on the last page

See any additional special provisions.

11. REIMBURSEMENT. You must promptly reimburse us for lost rent, loss, damage, government fines, or cost of repairs or service in the apartment community resulting, directly or indirectly, from You, your occupants, guests or visitors. The parties expressly agree that NCGS 42-10 shall not apply to your tenancy and, as such, resident shall be strictly liable for any damage incurred by us, including but not limited to lost rent, even where the premises is not habitable. Unless the damage or wastewater stoppage is due to our negligence, we’re not liable for—and you must pay for—repairs, replacement costs, and damage to the following that result from your or your invitees, guests, or occupants’ negligence or intentional acts: (1) damage to doors, windows, or screens; (2) damage from windows or doors left open; and (3) damage from wastewater stoppages caused by improper objects in lines exclusively serving your apartment. We may require payment at any time, including advance payment of repairs for which you’re liable. Delay in demanding sums you owe is not a waiver. Whether or not you pay for the damage, we may still declare a default of the Lease Contract and terminate your right to possession of the premises pursuant to paragraph 33 (Default by Resident) herein.

12. (A) EVICTION OR SUMMARY EJECTMENT AND PROPERTY LEFT IN THE APARTMENT.

In the event you violate any terms or conditions of this Lease Contract or Addenda or fail to perform any promise, duty or obligation you have agreed to or imposed upon you by law, then we, in addition to all other rights and remedies provided by law, may, at our option and with or without notice to you, either (1) terminate this Lease Contract or (2) terminate your right to possession of the premises without terminating this Lease Contract.

Regardless of whether we terminate this Lease Contract or only terminate your right of possession without terminating this Lease Contract, we shall be immediately entitled to possession of the premises and you shall peacefully surrender possession of the premises to us immediately upon our demand. In the event that you fail to surrender possession, we shall re-enter and re-take possession through a summary ejectment proceeding or expedited eviction proceeding as provided by North Carolina law. In the event that we terminate this Lease Contract, all of our duties under this agreement shall terminate and we shall be entitled to collect from you all accrued and unpaid rents, and damages arising under this Lease Contract.

If we bring a suit against you for summary ejectment, the County sheriff may remove your personal property from the apartment within 7 days from the time the sheriff executes the Writ of Possession. You must retake possession of your property if it is removed by the sheriff. If you do not do so, the sheriff may arrange for the storage of your property, and you will be liable for the costs of the proceedings and the storage of your property.

If the sheriff does not store your personal property removed from the apartment, we may take possession of it and move it for storage purposes. In the event of an execution of a Writ of Possession against you, you agree that this sentence hereby constitutes our offer to release your personal property to you during our regular business hours for the seven calendar-day period following the execution of a Writ of Possession. Seven days after being placed in lawful possession of your personal property by execution of the Writ of Possession, we may throw away, dispose of, or sell your property. If you request that we release your property to you during the seven day period, we must do so during our regular business hours. If we elect to sell your property, we must give you at least seven days notice prior to the sale, and we must release your property to you if you so request before the sale. If you do not request the release of your property within seven days, all costs of summary ejection, execution and storage proceedings shall be charged to you as court costs and shall constitute a lien against the stored property.

In the event we terminate your right of possession without terminating this Lease Contract, you shall remain liable for the full performance of all the covenants, and we shall use reasonable efforts to re-rent the premises on your behalf and you shall remain liable for any resulting costs, deficiencies or damages. Any such rentals reserved from re-renting shall be applied first to the cost of re-renting the premises and then to the rentals due under this Lease Contract. Re-entry shall not bar the right of recovery of rent or damages for breach of covenants, nor shall the partial receipt of rent after conditions broken be deemed a waiver of forfeiture, as provided by N.C.G.S. In order to entitle us to re-enter and/or terminate this Lease Contract for default, it shall not be deemed necessary to give notice of rent being due and unpaid or of other conditions broken or to make demands for rent, the execution of this Lease signed by you and us being sufficient notice of all terms of this Lease Contract including of the rent being due and demand for the same. We shall have all rights granted pursuant to N.C.G.S. §42-25.9 and §42-25.6.

(B) ABANDONED PROPERTY

If you abandon personal property with a value of $750 or less from apartment or fail to remove such property at the time of execution of a Writ of Possession, we may, as an alternative to the procedures described above, deliver the property to a non-profit organization regularly providing free or inexpensive clothing or household furnishings to people in need, provided that such organization agrees to store the property separately for a thirty-day period, and to release it to you without charge during this thirty-day period. We will deem personal property to be abandoned if we find evidence clearly showing the apartment has been voluntarily vacated after the rental period has expired and we have no notice of a disability that caused the vacancy.

If the total value of the property left in the apartment at the time of execution of a Writ of Possession is less than $500, we may deem the property abandoned after five days and may throw away or dispose of the property.

13. FAILING TO PAY FIRST MONTH'S RENT. If you don't pay the first month's rent when or before the Lease Contract begins, we may end your right of occupancy and recover damages, future rent, reletting charges, attorney's fees, court costs, and other lawful charges. This paragraph does not apply to termination of this Lease Contract 14 or more days before occupancy by military personnel.

14. RENT INCREASES AND LEASE CONTRACT CHANGES. No rent increases or Lease Contract changes are allowed before the initial Lease Contract term ends, except for changes allowed by any special provisions in paragraph 10 (Special Provisions), by a written addendum or amendment signed by you and us, or by reasonable changes of apartment rules allowed under paragraph 19 (Community Policies or Rules). If, at least 5 days before the advance notice deadline referred to in paragraph 3 (Lease Term), we give you written notice of rent increases or lease changes effective when the lease term or renewal period ends, this Lease Contract will automatically continue month-to-month with the increased rent or lease changes. The new modified Lease Contract will begin on the date stated in the notice (without necessity of your signature) unless you give us written move-out notice under paragraph 43 (Move-Out Notice).

15. DELAY OF OCCUPANCY. If occupancy is or will be delayed for construction, repairs, cleaning, or a previous resident's holding over, we're not responsible for the delay. The Lease Contract will remain in force subject to: (1) abatement of rent on a daily basis during delay; and (2) your right to terminate as set forth below. Termination notice must be in writing. After termination, you are entitled only to refund of deposit(s) and any rent paid. You hereby acknowledge and agree that we shall not be responsible for any other damages that may result from our failure to deliver possession of the premises, including but not limited to, moving expenses, lodging, storage, or any other cost, expense or damage whatsoever. Rent abatement or Lease Contract termination does not apply if delay is for cleaning or repairs that don't prevent you from occupying the apartment.

If there is a delay and we haven't given notice of delay as set forth immediately below, you may terminate up to the date when the apartment is ready for occupancy, but not later.

- (1) If we give written notice to any of you when or after the initial term as set forth in paragraph 3 (Lease Term)—and the notice states that occupancy has been delayed because of construction or a previous resident's holding over, and that the apartment will be ready on a specific date—you may terminate the Lease Contract within 3 days of your receiving the notice, but not later.
- (2) If we give written notice to any of you before the initial term as set forth in paragraph 3 (Lease Term) and the notice states that construction delay is expected and that the apartment will be ready for you to occupy on a specific date, you may terminate the Lease Contract within 7 days after any of you receives written notice, but not later. The readiness date is considered the new initial term as set forth in paragraph 3 (Lease Term) for all purposes. This new date may not be moved to an earlier date unless we and you agree.

16. RENTAL APPLICATION. You understand and agree that we have relied upon the Rental Application ("application") submitted by you as an inducement for entering into this Lease Contract, and you warrant that the facts contained in such application are true. If we determine or learn that any fact or representation in the application is false or deceptive or omits material facts, you shall be in default of this Lease Contract, and in such an event, we shall have all of the rights and remedies set forth in this Lease Contract.

You understand and agree that we reserve the right to check the criminal records of you and your occupants at any time during the original term or any renewal terms of this Lease Contract, though you also agree that we have no affirmative duty to anyone to research or monitor the criminal records or sex offender records of any person.

17. DISCLOSURE RIGHTS. If someone requests information on you or your rental history for law-enforcement, governmental, or business purposes, we may provide it.

While You're Living in the Apartment

18. COMMON AREAS. As used in this Agreement, the terms "Common Area" or "Common Areas" shall refer to all land and fixtures and spaces (other than Our business and management offices) outside the premises that are owned and maintained by us and comprise the single piece of real property that form the single community in which the premises is located. You understand and agree that the use of the Common Areas (including any amenity, swimming pool, exercise room, basketball court, parking areas, laundry facilities, hallways, breezeways, roadways, and so forth) is subject to any Rules and Regulations set by us and that such Rules and Regulations may be changed at any time without notice. You understand and agree that your payment of rent to us only entitles you to the rental and use of the premises and your ingress and egress to and from the premises while you remain in legal possession of the premises; you also understand and agree that your use of any Common Area facility is not included as part of the rent but instead is a privilege granted to you by us. We may revoke your privilege to use any facility upon your default of this Agreement, or if we deem, in our sole discretion, that you or an occupant or guest has misused the facility in any way or has disturbed the rights or comfort of other people.

In the event we revoke your privilege to use a facility, you agree that we have the right to trespass you and your occupant(s) criminally from the facility. You also further agree that: (a) We may close or eliminate any facility at any time; (b) that we may bar you or any occupant or guest from entering or using any facility based on your, or their, misuse of same or based upon your default of this Agreement, including but not limited to your failure to pay rent or any other debt when due under this Agreement; (c) You would not be entitled to any rent reduction or abatement or rescission or damages of any kind whatsoever relating in any way to your inability to access or use any facility. You also agree that we may remove, or we may request that any law enforcement officer remove or otherwise trespass, any person from the Common Areas where such person cannot or will not establish that they are a resident, occupant or guest.

19. COMMUNITY POLICIES OR RULES. You and all guests and occupants must comply with any written apartment rules, any restrictive covenants that might be in place and community policies, including instructions for care of our property. Our rules are considered part of this Lease Contract. We may make reasonable changes to written rules, effective immediately, if they are distributed and applicable to all units in the apartment community and do not change dollar amounts on page 1 of this Lease Contract.

Amenities. We reserve the right to set the days and hours of use for all Amenities and to change the character of, or close, any Amenity based upon our needs and in our sole and absolute discretion, without notice, obligation or recompense of any nature to you.

20. LIMITATIONS ON CONDUCT. The apartment and other areas reserved for your private use must be kept clean and free of trash, garbage, and other debris. Trash must be disposed of at least weekly in appropriate receptacles in accordance with local ordinances. Passageways may be used only for entry or exit. You agree to keep all passageways and common areas free of obstructions such as trash, storage items, and all forms of personal property. No person shall ride or allow bikes, skateboards, or other similar objects in the passageways. Any swimming pools, saunas, spas, tanning beds, exercise rooms, storerooms, laundry rooms, and similar areas must be used with care in accordance with apartment rules and posted signs. Glass containers are prohibited in all common areas. You, your occupants, or guests may not anywhere in the apartment community: use candles or use kerosene lamps or kerosene heaters without our prior written approval; cook on balconies or outside; or solicit business or contributions. Conducting any kind of business (including child care services) in your apartment or in the apartment community is prohibited—except that any lawful business conducted “at home” by computer, mail, or telephone is permissible if customers, clients, patients, or other business associates do not come to your apartment for business purposes. We may regulate: (1) the use of patios, balconies, and porches; (2) the conduct of furniture movers and delivery persons; and (3) recreational activities in common areas. You’ll be liable to us for damage caused by you or any guests or occupants.

We may exclude from the apartment community guests or others who, in our judgment, have been violating the law, violating this Lease Contract or any apartment rules, or disturbing other residents, neighbors, visitors, or owner representatives. We may also exclude from any outside area or common area a person who refuses to show photo identification or refuses to identify himself or herself as a resident, occupant, or guest of a specific resident in the community.

You agree to notify us if you or any occupants are convicted of any felony, or misdemeanor involving a controlled substance, violence to another person or destruction of property. You also agree to notify us if you or any occupant registers as a sex offender in any state. Informing us of criminal convictions or sex offender registry does not waive our right to evict you.

21. PROHIBITED CONDUCT. You, your occupants or guests, or the guests of any occupants, may not engage in the following activities: behaving in a loud or obnoxious manner; disturbing or threatening the rights, comfort, health, safety, or convenience of others (including our agents and employees) in or near the apartment community; disrupting our business operations; criminal activity of any kind, including but not limited to, manufacturing, delivering, possessing with intent to deliver, or otherwise possessing a controlled substance or drug paraphernalia; engaging in or threatening violence; possessing a weapon prohibited by state law; discharging a firearm in the apartment community; displaying or possessing a gun, knife, or other weapon in the common area in a way that may alarm others; storing anything in closets having gas appliances; tampering with utilities or telecommunications; bringing hazardous materials into the apartment community; allowing or inviting any previously trespassed and/or banned guest or visitor into the community.

22. PARKING. We may regulate the time, manner, and place of parking cars, trucks, motorcycles, bicycles, boats, trailers, and recreational vehicles by anyone. We may have unauthorized or illegally parked vehicles towed under an appropriate statute. A vehicle is unauthorized or illegally parked in the apartment community if it:

- (1) has a flat tire or other condition rendering it inoperable; or
- (2) is on jacks, blocks or has wheel(s) missing; or
- (3) has no current license plate or no current registration and/or inspection sticker; or
- (4) takes up more than one parking space; or
- (5) belongs to a resident or occupant who has surrendered or abandoned the apartment; or
- (6) is parked in a marked handicap space without the legally required handicap insignia; or
- (7) is parked in space marked for manager, staff, or guest at the office; or
- (8) blocks another vehicle from exiting; or
- (9) is parked in a fire lane or designated “no parking” area; or

- (10) is parked in a space marked for other resident(s) or unit(s); or
- (11) is parked on the grass, sidewalk, or patio; or
- (12) blocks garbage trucks from access to a dumpster; or
- (13) belongs to a resident and is parked in a visitor or retail parking space.

23. RELEASE OF RESIDENT. Unless you’re entitled to terminate your tenancy under paragraphs 10 (Special Provisions), 15 (Delay of Occupancy), 43 (Move-Out Notice), or any other applicable laws, you won’t be released from this Lease Contract for any reason—including but not limited to voluntary or involuntary school withdrawal or transfer, voluntary or involuntary job transfer, marriage, separation, divorce, reconciliation, loss of co-residents, loss of employment, bad health, or death.

24. MILITARY PERSONNEL CLAUSE. All parties to this Lease Contract agree to comply with any federal law, including, but not limited to the Service Member’s Civil Relief Act, or any applicable state law(s), if you are seeking to terminate this Lease Contract and/or subsequent renewals and/or Lease Contract extensions under the rights granted by such laws.

25. RESIDENT SAFETY AND PROPERTY LOSS. You and all occupants and guests must exercise due care for your own and others’ safety and security, especially in the use of smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors, keyed deadbolt locks, keyless bolting devices, window latches, and access control devices.

Smoke Detectors and Carbon Monoxide Detectors. We’ll furnish smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors as required by statute, and we’ll test them and provide working batteries, if applicable, when you first take possession. After that, you must pay for and replace batteries as needed, unless the law provides otherwise. We may replace dead or missing batteries at your expense, without prior notice to you. You must periodically inspect the smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors to ensure their operability and immediately report smoke detector and carbon monoxide detector malfunctions to us. Neither you nor others may disable smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors. If you disable or damage the smoke detector and carbon monoxide detectors, or fail to replace a dead battery or report malfunctions to us, you may be liable to us and others for any loss, damage, or fines from fire, smoke, or water.

Casualty Loss. You shall immediately notify us of any damage to the premises by fire, flooding, or other casualty not caused by us, including any type of catastrophic damage which renders the premises or a substantial portion of the premises, uninhabitable. We’re not liable to any resident, guest, or occupant for personal injury or damage or loss of personal property from any cause, including but not limited to: fire, smoke, rain, flood, water and pipe leaks, hail, ice, snow, lightning, wind, explosions, earthquake, interruption of utilities, theft, or vandalism unless otherwise required by law. Furthermore, where such damage is not caused by us, we shall have no obligation to provide alternative housing for you or to pay relocation expenses associated with vacating the premises. During freezing weather, you must ensure that the temperature in the apartment is sufficient to make sure that the pipes do not freeze (the appropriate temperature will depend upon weather conditions and the size and layout of your unit). If the pipes freeze or any other damage is caused by your failure to properly maintain the heat in your apartment, you’ll be liable for damage to our and other’s property. If you ask our representatives to perform services not contemplated in this Lease Contract, you will indemnify us and hold us harmless from all liability for those services.

Crime or Emergency. Dial 911 or immediately call local medical emergency, fire, or police personnel in case of accident, fire, smoke, or suspected criminal activity or other emergency involving imminent harm. You should then contact our representative. Unless otherwise provided by law, we’re not liable to you or any guests or occupants for injury, damage, or loss to person or property caused by criminal conduct of other persons, including theft, burglary, assault, vandalism, or other crimes. We’re not obliged to furnish security personnel, security lighting, security gates or fences, or other forms of security. If we provide any access control devices or security measures upon the property, they are not a guarantee to prevent crime or to reduce the risk of crime on the property. You agree that no access control or security measures can eliminate all crime and that you will not rely upon any provided access control or security measures as a warranty or guarantee of any kind. We’re not responsible for obtaining criminal-history checks on any residents, occupants, guests, or contractors in the apartment community. If you or any occupant or guest is affected by a crime, you must make a written report to our representative and to the appropriate local law-enforcement agency. You must also furnish us with the law-enforcement agency’s incident report number upon request.

26. CONDITION OF THE PREMISES AND ALTERATIONS. You'll be given an Inventory and Condition form on or before move-in. You must note on the form all defects or damage within 7 days of being put in possession of the premises and return it to our representative. Otherwise, everything will be considered to be in a clean, safe, and good working condition.

You must use customary diligence in maintaining the apartment and not damaging or littering the common areas. Unless authorized by statute or by us in writing, you must not perform any repairs, painting, wallpapering, carpeting, electrical changes, or otherwise alter our property. No holes or stickers are allowed inside or outside the apartment. But we'll permit a reasonable number of small nail holes for hanging pictures on sheetrock walls and in grooves of wood-paneled walls, unless our rules state otherwise. No water furniture, washing machines, additional phone or TV-cable outlets, alarm systems, or lock changes, additions, or rekeying is permitted unless statutorily allowed or we've consented in writing. You may install a satellite dish or antenna provided you sign our satellite dish or antenna lease addendum which complies with reasonable restrictions allowed by federal law. You agree not to alter, damage, or remove our property, including alarm systems, smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors, furniture, telephone and cable TV wiring, screens, locks, and access control devices. When you move in, we'll supply light bulbs for fixtures we furnish, including exterior fixtures operated from inside the apartment; after that, you'll replace them at your expense with bulbs of the same type and wattage. When you move in, we'll supply the initial batteries for any battery-operated smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors; after that, you'll be responsible for testing such batteries and replacing the same for the duration of the tenancy and any renewal thereof. Your improvements to the apartment (whether or not we consent) become ours unless we agree otherwise in writing.

27. REQUESTS, REPAIRS, AND MALFUNCTIONS. IF YOU OR ANY OCCUPANT NEEDS TO SEND A NOTICE OR REQUEST—FOR EXAMPLE, FOR REPAIRS, INSTALLATIONS, SERVICES, OR SECURITY-RELATED MATTERS—IT MUST BE SUBMITTED THROUGH EITHER THE ONLINE RESIDENT/MAINTENANCE PORTAL, OR SIGNED AND IN WRITING AND DELIVERED TO OUR DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE (except in case of fire, smoke, gas, explosion, overflowing sewage, uncontrollable running water, electrical shorts, crime in progress, or imminently dangerous conditions as specifically defined by law). Our written notes on your oral request do not constitute a written request from you.

Our complying with or responding to any oral request regarding security or non-security matters doesn't waive the strict requirement for written notices under this Lease Contract. You must promptly notify us in writing of: water leaks; electrical problems; malfunctioning lights; broken or missing locks or latches; and other conditions that pose a hazard to property, health, or safety. We may change or install utility lines or equipment serving the apartment if the work is done reasonably without substantially increasing your utility costs. We may turn off equipment and interrupt utilities as needed to avoid property damage or to perform work. If utilities malfunction or are damaged by fire, water, or similar cause, you must notify our representative immediately. Air conditioning problems are rarely emergencies. If air conditioning or other equipment malfunctions, you must notify our representative as soon as possible on a business day. We'll act with customary diligence to make repairs and reconnections.

We may, in our sole discretion, elect to repair substantial damage to the premises within a reasonable time under the circumstances, and in such an event, your obligations under the Lease Contract shall continue. Any obligation to pay rent during such period of repair shall be abated so long as the substantial damage was not caused by you, your occupants, guests or visitors. If we believe that fire or catastrophic damage is substantial, or that performance of needed repairs poses a danger to you, we may terminate your tenancy within a reasonable time by giving you written notice. If your tenancy is so terminated, we'll refund prorated rent (dating back to the date of the casualty) and all deposits, less lawful deductions. Should you fail to vacate the premises following our notice of termination herein you shall be considered a hold over tenant and we may exercise any and all remedies available to us under this Lease Contract.

28. ANIMALS. Unless otherwise provided under federal, state, or local law, no animals (including mammals, reptiles, birds, fish, rodents, and insects) are allowed, even temporarily, anywhere in the apartment or apartment Community unless we've so authorized in writing. You must remove an illegal or unauthorized animal within 24 hours of notice from us, or you will be considered in default of this Lease Contract. If we allow an animal as a pet, you must execute a separate animal addendum which may require additional deposits, rents, fees or other charges. An animal deposit is considered a general security deposit. We will authorize an assistance animal for a disabled person. When allowed by applicable laws, before we authorize an assistance animal, if the disability is not readily apparent, we may require a written statement from a qualified professional verifying the disability-related need for the assistance animal. If we authorize an assistance animal, we may require you to execute a separate animal and/or assistance animal addendum. Animal deposits, additional rents, fees or other charges will not be required for an assistance animal needed due to disability, including an emotional support or service animal, as authorized under federal, state, or local law. You must not feed stray or wild animals.

If you or any guest or occupant violates animal restrictions (with or without your knowledge), you'll be subject to charges, damages, eviction, and other remedies provided in this Lease Contract. You shall remove any pet previously permitted under this Lease Contract and the Animal Addendum within 24 hours of written notification from us that the pet, in our sole judgment, creates a nuisance or disturbance or is, in our opinion, undesirable. If an animal has been in the apartment at any time during your term of occupancy (with or without our consent), we'll charge you for defleaing, deodorizing, and shampooing. Initial and daily animal-violation charges and animal-removal charges are liquidated damages for our time, inconvenience, and overhead (except for attorney's fees and litigation costs) in enforcing animal restrictions and rules.

29. WHEN WE MAY ENTER. If you or any guest or occupant is present, then repairers, servicers, contractors, our representatives or other persons listed in (2) below may peacefully enter the apartment at reasonable times for the purposes listed in (2) below. If nobody is in the apartment, such persons may enter peacefully and at reasonable times by duplicate or master key (or by breaking a window or other means when necessary in emergencies) if:

- (1) written notice of the entry is left in a conspicuous place in the apartment immediately after the entry; and
- (2) entry is for: responding to your request; making repairs or replacements; estimating repair or refurbishing costs; performing pest control; doing preventive maintenance; changing filters; testing or replacing smoke-detector and/or carbon monoxide detector batteries; retrieving unreturned tools, equipment, or appliances; preventing waste of utilities; leaving notices; delivering, installing, reconnecting, or replacing appliances, furniture, equipment, or access control devices; removing or rekeying unauthorized access control devices; stopping excessive noise; cutting off electricity according to statute; retrieving property owned or leased by former residents; inspecting when immediate danger to person or property is reasonably suspected; allowing persons to enter as you authorized in your rental application (if you die, are incarcerated, etc.); allowing entry by a law officer with search or arrest warrant or in hot pursuit; showing apartment to prospective residents (after move-out or vacate notice has been given); or showing apartment to government inspectors for the limited purpose of determining housing and fire ordinance compliance by us and to lenders, appraisers, contractors, prospective buyers, or insurance agents. Should you fail or refuse to allow us access to the premises pursuant to the terms of this paragraph, you shall be in default of this Lease Contract.

30. JOINT AND SEVERAL RESPONSIBILITY. Each resident is jointly and severally liable for all lease obligations. If you or any guest or occupant violates the Lease Contract or rules, all residents are considered to have violated the Lease Contract. Our requests and notices to any resident constitute notice to all residents and occupants. Notices and requests from any resident or occupant (including notices of tenancy termination, repair requests, and entry permissions) constitute notice from all residents. Security-deposit refunds and deduction itemizations of multiple residents will comply with paragraph 48 (Deposit Return, Surrender, and Abandonment).

Replacements

31. REPLACEMENTS AND SUBLETTING. Replacing a resident, subletting, assignment, or granting a right or license to occupy is allowed only when we expressly consent in writing. If departing or remaining residents find a replacement resident acceptable to us before moving out and we expressly consent, in writing, to the replacement, subletting, assignment, or granting a right or any license to occupy then:

- (1) a reletting charge will not be due;
- (2) a reasonable administrative (paperwork) and/or transfer fee will be due, and a rekeying fee will be due if rekeying is requested or required; and
- (3) the departing and remaining residents will remain liable for all Lease Contract obligations for the rest of the original Lease Contract term.

Procedures for Replacement. If we approve a replacement resident, then, at our option: (1) the replacement resident must sign this Lease Contract with or without an increase in the total security deposit; or (2) the remaining and replacement residents must sign an entirely new Lease Contract. Unless we agree otherwise in writing, your security deposit will automatically transfer to the replacement resident as of the date we approve. The departing resident will no longer have a right of occupancy or security-deposit refund, but will remain liable for the remainder of the original Lease Contract term unless we agree otherwise in writing—even if a new Lease Contract is signed.

Responsibilities of Owner and Resident

32. RESPONSIBILITIES OF OWNER. We'll act with customary diligence to:

- (1) comply with the applicable building and housing codes;
- (2) make all repairs and do whatever is necessary to put and keep the premises in a fit and habitable condition;
- (3) keep all common areas of the premises in safe condition;
- (4) maintain in good and safe working order and promptly repair all facilities and appliances supplied or required to be supplied by us; and.
- (5) provide operable smoke detectors and/or carbon monoxide detectors and replace or repair the smoke and/or carbon monoxide detectors within 15 days of receipt of your written notification to us.

33. DEFAULT BY RESIDENT. You'll be in default if you or any guest or occupant violates any terms of this Lease Contract or Addenda including but not limited to the following violations: (1) you don't pay rent or other amounts that you owe when due; (2) you or any guest or occupant violates the apartment rules, or fire, safety, health, or criminal laws, regardless of whether or where arrest or conviction occurs; (3) you abandon the apartment; (4) you give incorrect or false answers in a rental application; (5) you or any occupant is arrested, convicted, or given deferred adjudication for a felony offense involving actual or potential physical harm to a person, or involving possession, manufacture, or delivery of a controlled substance, marijuana, or drug paraphernalia under state statute; (6) any illegal drugs or paraphernalia are found in your apartment; (7) you or any guest or occupant engages in any of the prohibited conduct in paragraph 21 (Prohibited Conduct); or (8) you or any occupant, in bad faith, makes an invalid complaint to an official or employee of a utility company or the government.

Eviction. If you default, we may re-enter and re-take possession of the premises as provided in paragraph 12 (Eviction or Summary Ejection and Property Left in the Apartment) and may immediately institute proceedings for summary ejection as provided by law without notice or demand. Termination of your possession rights or subsequent reletting doesn't release you from liability for future rent or other lease obligations. After filing a summary ejection suit, we may still accept a partial payment of rent or a partial housing subsidy payment; the filing or acceptance doesn't waive or diminish our right of eviction, or any other contractual or statutory right. Accepting a partial payment of rent or a partial housing subsidy payment at any time doesn't waive your default of this Lease Contract; our right to damages; past or future rent or other sums; or to file an eviction or to continue with filed eviction proceedings; nor does our exercise of any of our rights in this Paragraph violate Chapter 75 of the N.C. General Statutes. Pursuant to NCGS 42-73, we may accept a full payment of rent due with full and complete knowledge of any criminal acts that violate this Lease Contract without such acceptance of rent constituting any waiver of your default or our rights to enforce the same.

Release of Property Following Writ. If we obtain a judgment for possession against you and the Sheriff has executed a Writ of Possession delivering possession of the premises to us, this paragraph constitutes our offer to release your personal property to you, during our normal business hours, for a period of no more than 7 calendar days after the date of the Sheriff's execution of the Writ of Possession. Should you fail to retrieve your personal property during the lockout period we have the right to throw away or dispose of your personal property without any liability to you for the disposal or destruction of your personal property.

Holdover. You or any occupant, invitee, or guest must not hold over beyond the date contained in your move-out notice or our notice to vacate (or beyond a different move-out date agreed to by the parties in writing). If a holdover occurs, then: (1) holdover rent is due in advance on a daily basis and may become delinquent without notice or demand; (2) rent for the holdover period will be increased by 25% over the then-existing rent, without notice; (3) you'll be liable to us for actual damages arising out of full term of the previously signed Lease Contract of a new resident who can't occupy because of the holdover; and (4) at our option, we may extend the lease term—for up to one month from the date of notice of lease extension—by delivering written notice to you or your apartment while you continue to hold over.

Other Remedies. We may report unpaid amounts to credit agencies. If you default and move out early, you will pay us all sums due and owing. Upon your default, we have all other legal remedies, including lease termination and summary ejection under state statute. We may recover from you attorney's fees and all litigation costs to the extent permitted by law. In the event we file a summary ejection lawsuit against you, we may also recover from you the highest one of the following fees (which shall be in addition to late fees, attorney's fees, and any applicable court costs):

(1) Complaint Filing Fee. If you are in default of this Lease Contract and if we file and serve a summary ejection complaint or a complaint for money owed against you, and if we elect to dismiss the complaint after you cure the default, you shall owe Us a Complaint Filing Fee equal to $15.00 or five percent (5%) of the monthly rent, whichever is higher. If the rent is subsidized by a government entity, the Complaint Filing Fee will be $15.00 or 5% of your share of the monthly rent, whichever is higher.

(2) Court Appearance Fee. In the event that (i) we file, serve, and prosecute successfully a summary ejection complaint or complaint for money owed against you and (ii) a judgment is entered against you, you shall owe us—in lieu of the Complaint Filing Fee—a Court Appearance Fee equal to ten percent (10%) of the monthly rent. If the rent is subsidized by a government entity, the Court Appearance Fee will be 10% of your share of the monthly rent.

(3) Second Trial Fee. In the event that (i) you appeal a judgment of a magistrate and (ii) we prove that you are in default of the lease at the new trial and (iii) we obtain a judgment against you at the new trial, you shall owe us—in lieu of the Complaint Filing Fee and Court Appearance Fee—a Second Trial Fee equal to twelve percent (12%) of the monthly rent. If the monthly rent is subsidized by a government entity, the Second Trial Fee will be 12% of your share of monthly rent.

Mitigation of Damages. If you move out early, you'll be subject to all remedies under North Carolina law. We'll exercise customary diligence to relet and mitigate damages. We'll credit all subsequent rent that we actually receive from subsequent residents against your liability for past-due and future rent and other sums due.

Lease Renewal When A Breach or Default Has Occurred. In the event that you enter into a subsequent Lease prior to the expiration of this Lease and you breach or otherwise commit a default under this Lease, We may, at our sole and absolute discretion, terminate the subsequent Lease, even if the subsequent Lease term has yet to commence. We may terminate said subsequent Lease by sending you written notice of our desire to terminate said subsequent Lease.

Remedies Cumulative. Any remedies set forth herein shall be cumulative, in addition to, and not in limitation of, any other remedies available to Landlord under any applicable law.

General Clauses

34. NO AUTHORITY TO AMEND UNLESS IN WRITING.

Our representatives (including management personnel, employees, and agents) have no authority to waive, amend, or terminate this Lease Contract or any part of it, unless in writing, and no authority to make promises, representations, or agreements that impose security duties or other obligations on us or our representatives unless in writing.

35. NO WAIVER. No action or omission of our representative will be considered a waiver of any subsequent violation, default, or time or place of performance. Our not enforcing or belatedly enforcing written-notice requirements, rental due dates, liens, or other rights isn't a waiver under any circumstances.

36. NOTICE. Except when notice or demand is required by statute, you waive any notice and demand for performance from us if you default. Written notice to or from our managers constitutes notice to or from us. Any person giving a notice under this Lease Contract should retain a copy of the memo, letter or fax that was given. Fax or electronic signatures are binding. All notices must be signed. For purposes of establishing notice the parties may use electronic mail, text message or written notice sent to the addresses and/or mobile number set forth at the end of this Lease Contract.

37. MISCELLANEOUS.

- A. Exercising one remedy won't constitute an election or waiver of other remedies.
- B. Unless prohibited by law or the respective insurance policies, insurance subrogation is waived by all parties.
- C. All remedies are cumulative.
- D. No employee, agent, or management company is personally liable for any of our contractual, statutory, or other obligations merely by virtue of acting on our behalf.
- E. This Lease Contract binds subsequent owners.
- F. Neither an invalid clause nor the omission of initials on any page invalidates this Lease Contract.
- G. All provisions regarding our non-liability and non-duty apply to our employees, agents, and management companies.
- H. This Lease Contract is subordinate or superior to existing and future recorded mortgages, at lender's option.
- I. All Lease Contract obligations must be performed in the county where the apartment is located.
- J. All discretionary rights reserved for us within this Lease Contract or any accompanying addenda are at our sole and absolute discretion.
- K. If the premises or any portion of the community shall be taken by eminent domain pursuant to governmental authority, this Lease Contract shall terminate at our option and you shall have no claim against us or as to any portion of the award granted to us as a result of such taking.

38. CONTACTING YOU. By signing this lease, you are agreeing that we, our representative(s) or agent(s) may contact you. You agree that we may contact you using any contact information relating to your lease including any number or email address (i) you have provided to us (ii) from which you called us, or (iii) which we obtained and through which we reasonably believe we can reach you. You agree we may use any means to contact you. This may include calls made to your cellular telephone using an automatic telephone dialing system, artificial or prerecorded voice messages, text messages, mail, e-mail, and calls to your phone or Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) service, or any other data or voice transmission technology. You agree to promptly notify us if you change any contact information you provide to us. You are responsible for any service provider charges as a result of us contacting you.

39. OBLIGATION TO VACATE. If we provide you with a notice to vacate, or if you provide us with a written notice to vacate or intent to move-out in accordance with paragraph 3 (Lease Term), and we accept such written notice, then you are required to vacate the Apartment and remove all of your personal property therefrom at the expiration of the Lease term, or by the date set forth in the notice to vacate, whichever date is earlier, without further notice or demand from us.

40. FORCE MAJEURE. If we are prevented from completing performances of any obligations hereunder by an act of God, strikes, epidemics, war, acts of terrorism, riots, flood, fire, hurricane, tornado, sabotage, or other occurrence which is beyond the control of the parties, then we shall be excused from any further performance of obligations and undertakings hereunder, to the full extent allowed under applicable law.

Furthermore, if such an event damages the property to materially affect its habitability by some or all residents, we reserve the right to vacate any and all leases and you agree to excuse us from any further performance of obligations and undertakings hereunder, to the full extent allowed under applicable law.

41. PAYMENTS. At our option and without notice, we may apply money received first to any of your unpaid obligations, then to current rent—regardless of notations on checks or money orders and regardless of when the obligations arose. This excludes any previously charged late fees and/or unpaid utility payments which are submetered by us. All sums other than rent are due upon our demand. After the due date, we do not have to accept the rent or any other payments.

42. ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP. We represent that either: (1) we or; (2) the management company that represents us, is at the time of signing this Lease Contract or a renewal of this Lease Contract, a member of both the National Apartment Association and any affiliated state and local apartment (multi-housing) associations for the area where the apartment is located.

When Moving Out

43. MOVE-OUT NOTICE. Before moving out, you must give our representative advance written move-out notice as provided below. Your move-out notice will not release you from liability for the full term of the Lease Contract or renewal term. You will still be liable for the entire Lease Contract term if you move out early (paragraph 23 - Release of Resident) except under any other applicable laws. YOUR MOVE-OUT NOTICE MUST COMPLY WITH EACH OF THE FOLLOWING:

- We must receive advance written notice of your move-out date. The advance notice must be at least the number of days of notice required in paragraph 3 (Lease Term). Oral move-out notice will not be accepted and will not terminate your Lease Contract.
- Your move-out notice must not terminate your tenancy sooner than the end of the Lease Contract term or renewal period.

YOUR NOTICE IS NOT ACCEPTABLE IF IT DOES NOT COMPLY WITH ALL OF THE ABOVE . Please use our written move-out form. You must obtain from our representative written acknowledgment that we received your move-out notice. If we terminate your tenancy, we must give you the same advance notice—unless you are in default. Where there is more than one resident to this Lease Contract, a notice of termination submitted by one resident shall be considered a notice of termination submitted by all residents. Should there be conflicting notices, the notice of termination shall control.

44. MOVE-OUT PROCEDURES. The move-out date can't be changed unless we and you both agree in writing. You won't move out before the lease term or renewal period ends unless all rent for the entire lease term or renewal period is paid in full. Early move-out may result in reletting charges. You're prohibited by law from applying any security deposit to rent. You won't stay beyond the date you are supposed to move out. All residents, guests, and occupants must vacate the apartment before the 30-day period for deposit refund begins. You must give us and the U.S. Postal Service, in writing, each resident's forwarding address. You shall pay any and all utility bills due for any utility services to the premises for which you are responsible. At or before the time of move-out and surrender of possession, you will provide us with written authorization allowing us to dispose of any personal property left in the premises by you upon surrendering the keys. You understand and acknowledge that your failure to provide such written authorization and/or to remove all personal property from the premises shall constitute your continued possession of the premises requiring us to file an action for summary ejection to regain possession of the premises. Should we be required to file such action you will be responsible for any rental obligation that comes due until such time as we are placed in lawful possession of the premises.

45. CLEANING. You must thoroughly clean the apartment, including doors, windows, furniture, bathrooms, kitchen appliances, patios, balconies, garages, carports, and storage rooms. You must follow move-out cleaning instructions if they have been provided. If you don't clean adequately, you'll be liable for reasonable cleaning charges.

46. MOVE-OUT INSPECTION. You should meet with our representative for a move-out inspection. Our representative has no authority to bind or limit us regarding deductions for repairs, damages, or charges. Any statements or estimates by us or our representative are subject to our correction, modification, or disapproval before final refunding or accounting.

47. SECURITY DEPOSIT DEDUCTIONS AND OTHER CHARGES. We may deduct sums from your security deposit for charges related to the following: your possible non-payment of rent, costs of water and sewer services provided, damage to the premises, damage or destruction of smoke detectors or carbon monoxide detectors, nonfulfillment of the rental period, any unpaid bills that become a lien against the demised property due to your occupancy, costs of re-renting the premises after breach by you, including but not limited to any reasonable fees or commissions paid by the landlord to a licensed real estate broker to re-rent the premises, costs of removal and storage of your property after a summary ejectment proceeding, court costs, or any fee authorized by N.C. GEN. STAT. § 42-46.

48. DEPOSIT RETURN, SURRENDER, AND ABANDONMENT.
Deposit Return and Forwarding Address. You are required to provide us written notice of your forwarding address, on or before termination of this Lease Contract. If we can determine the full extent of our deductions from your security deposit, we'll mail you, to the forwarding address you provide, your security deposit refund (less lawful deductions) and an itemized accounting of any deductions no later than 30 days after termination of your tenancy under this Lease Contract and delivery of possession by you, unless statutes provide otherwise. If we cannot determine the full extent of our deductions from your security deposit within the aforementioned 30 day period, we'll mail you an interim itemized accounting of our deductions from the deposit within 30 days after termination of your tenancy under this Lease Contract and delivery of possession by you, and we'll also mail your security deposit refund (less lawful deductions) and a final itemized accounting of any deductions no later than 60 days after termination of your tenancy under this Lease Contract and delivery of possession by you. If you fail to provide us with your forwarding address in writing, as required above, we will process the unclaimed security deposit in accordance with state law. To the extent there are multiple residents under the Lease Contract, you hereby acknowledge that we may issue any Deposit refund to one or all of the residents and it shall be up to the residents to divide accordingly.

Surrender. You have surrendered the apartment when: (1) the move-out date has passed and no one is living in the apartment in our reasonable judgment; or (2) all apartment keys and access devices listed in paragraph 5 (Keys) have been turned in where rent is paid—whichever date occurs first.

Abandonment. You have abandoned the apartment when all of the following have occurred: (1) everyone appears to have moved out in our reasonable judgment; (2) clothes, furniture, and personal belongings have been substantially removed in our reasonable judgment; (3) you've been in default for non-payment of rent for 5 consecutive days or water, gas, or electric service for the apartment not connected in our name has been terminated; and (4) you've not responded for 2 days to our notice left on the inside of the main entry door, stating that we consider the apartment abandoned. An apartment is also "abandoned" 10 days after the death of a sole resident.

Surrender, abandonment, and judicial eviction end your right of possession for all purposes and gives us the immediate right to: clean up, make repairs in, and relet the apartment, and determine any security deposit deductions. Surrender, abandonment, and judicial eviction affect your rights to property left in the apartment (paragraph 12 - Eviction or Summary Ejectment and Property Left in the Apartment), but do not affect our mitigation obligations (paragraph 33 - Default by Resident).

Severability, Originals and Attachments, and Signatures

49. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Lease Contract or Addenda are invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this Lease Contract. The court shall interpret the lease and provisions herein in a manner such as to uphold the valid portions of this Lease Contract while preserving the intent of the parties.

50. ORIGINALS AND ATTACHMENTS. This Lease Contract and Addenda has been executed in multiple originals, with original signatures. We will provide you with a copy of the Lease Contract and Addenda. Your copy of the Lease Contract and Addenda may be in paper format, in an electronic format at your request, or sent via e-mail if we have communicated by e-mail about this Lease. Our rules and community policies, if any, will be attached to the Lease Contract and Addenda and provided to you at signing. When an Inventory and Condition form is completed, you should retain a copy, and we should retain a copy. Any addenda or amendments you sign as a part of executing this Lease Contract and Addenda are binding and hereby incorporated into and made part of the Lease Contract and Addenda between you and us. This lease is the entire agreement between you and us. You acknowledge that you are NOT relying on any oral representations. A copy or scan of this Lease Contract and related addenda, amendments, and agreements may be used for any purpose and shall be treated as an original.

- Unless we have designated a particular area in your dwelling unit or on the grounds for animal defecation and urination, you are prohibited from letting an animal defecate or urinate anywhere on our property. You must take the animal off our property for that purpose. If we allow animal defecation inside the dwelling unit in this Addendum, you must ensure that it's done in a litter box with a kitty litter type mix. If the animal defecates anywhere on our property (including in a fenced yard for your exclusive use), you'll be responsible for immediately removing the waste and repairing any damage. Despite anything this Addendum says, you must comply with all local ordinances regarding animal defecation.

12. ADDITIONAL RULES. We have the right to make reasonable changes to the animal rules from time to time if we distribute a written copy of any changes to every resident who is allowed to have animals.

13. VIOLATION OF RULES. If you, your guest, or any occupant violates any rule or provision of this Animal Addendum (based upon our judgment) and we give you written notice, you must permanently remove the animal from the premises within the time period specified in our notice. We also have all other rights and remedies set forth in the Lease Contract, including damages, eviction, and attorney's fees to the extent allowed by law.

14. COMPLAINTS ABOUT ANIMAL. You must immediately and permanently remove the animal from the premises if we receive a reasonable complaint from a neighbor or other resident or if we, in our sole discretion, determine that the animal has disturbed neighbors or other residents.

15. LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES, INJURIES, CLEANING, ETC. You and all co-residents will be jointly and severally liable for the entire amount of all damages caused by the animal, including all cleaning, defleaing, and deodorizing. This provision applies to all parts of the dwelling unit, including carpets, doors, walls, drapes, wallpaper, windows, screens, furniture, appliances, as well as landscaping and other outside improvements. If items cannot be satisfactorily cleaned or repaired, you must pay for us to replace them completely. Payment for damages, repairs, cleaning, replacements, etc. are due immediately upon demand.

As owner of the animal, you're strictly liable for the entire amount of any injury that the animal causes to a person or anyone's property. You'll indemnify us for all costs of litigation and attorney's fees resulting from any such damage.

16. MOVE-OUT. When you move out, you'll pay for defleaing, deodorizing, and shampooing to protect future residents from possible health hazards, regardless of how long the animal was there. We—not you—will arrange for these services.

17. JOINT AND SEVERAL RESPONSIBILITY. Each resident who signed the Lease Contract must sign this Animal Addendum. You, your guests, and any occupants must follow all animal rules. Each resident is jointly and severally liable for damages and all other obligations set forth in this Animal Addendum, even if the resident does not own the animal.

18. GENERAL. You acknowledge that no other oral or written agreement exists regarding animals. Except for written rule changes under paragraph 9 above, our representative has no authority to modify this Animal Addendum or the animal rules except in writing. This Animal Addendum and the animal rules are considered part of the Lease Contract described above. It has been executed in multiple originals, one for you and one or more for us.

This is a binding legal document. Read it carefully before signing.

BED BUGS — A Guide for Rental Housing Residents

Bed bugs, with a typical lifespan of 6 to 12 months, are wingless, flat, broadly oval-shaped insects. Capable of reaching the size of an apple seed at full growth, bed bugs are distinguishable by their reddish-brown color, although after feeding on the blood of humans and warm-blooded animals—their sole food source—the bugs assume a distinctly blood-red hue until digestion is complete.

Bed bugs don't discriminate

Bed bugs increased presence across the United States in recent decades can be attributed largely to a surge in international travel and trade. It's no surprise then that bed bugs have been found time and time again to have taken up residence in some of the fanciest hotels and apartment buildings in some of the nation's most expensive neighborhoods.

Nonetheless, false claims that associate bed bugs presence with poor hygiene and uncleanliness have caused rental housing residents, out of shame, to avoid notifying owners of their presence. This serves only to enable the spread of bed bugs.

While bed bugs are, by their very nature, more attracted to clutter, they're certainly not discouraged by cleanliness.

Bottom line: bed bugs know no social and economic bounds; claims to the contrary are false.

Bed bugs don't transmit disease

There exists no scientific evidence that bed bugs transmit disease. In fact, federal agencies tasked with addressing pest of public health concern, namely the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, have refused to elevate bed bugs to the threat level posed by disease transmitting pests. Again, claims associating bed bugs with disease are false.

Identifying bed bugs

Bed bugs can often be found in, around and between:

- Bedding
- Bed frames
- Mattress seams
- Upholstered furniture, especially under cushions and along seams
- Around, behind and under wood furniture, especially along areas where drawers slide
- Curtains and draperies
- Along window and door frames
- Ceiling and wall junctions
- Crown moldings
- Behind and around wall hangings and loose wallpaper
- Between carpeting and walls (carpet can be pulled away from the wall and tack strip)
- Cracks and crevices in walls and floors
- Inside electronic devices, such as smoke and carbon monoxide detectors

- Because bed bugs leave some persons with itchy welts strikingly similar to those caused by fleas and mosquitoes, the origination of such markings often go misdiagnosed. However, welts caused by bed bugs often times appear in succession and on exposed areas of skin, such as the face, neck and arms. In some cases, an individual may not experience any visible reaction resulting from direct contact with bed bugs.
- While bed bugs typically prefer to act at night, they often do not succeed in returning to their hiding spots without leaving traces of their presence through fecal markings of a red to dark brown color, visible on or near beds. Blood stains tend also to appear when the bugs have been squashed, usually by an unsuspecting host in their sleep. And, because they shed, it's not uncommon for skin casts to be left behind in areas typically frequented by bed bugs.

Preventing bed bug encounters when traveling

Because humans serve as bed bugs' main mode of transportation, it is extremely important to be mindful of bed bugs when away from home. Experts agree that the spread of bed bugs across all regions of the United States is largely attributed to an increase in international travel and trade. Travelers are therefore encouraged to take a few minutes upon arriving to their temporary destination to thoroughly inspect their accommodations, so as to ensure that any uninvited guests are detected before the decision is made to unpack.

Because bed bugs can easily travel from one room to another, it is also recommended that travelers thoroughly inspect their luggage and belongings for bed bugs before departing for home.

Bed bug do's and don'ts

- Do not bring used furniture from unknown sources into your dwelling. Countless bed bug infestations have stemmed directly from the introduction into a resident's unit of second-hand and abandoned furniture. Unless the determination can be made with absolute certainty that a piece of second-hand furniture is bed bug-free, residents should assume that the reason a seemingly nice looking leather couch, for example, is sitting curbside, waiting to be hauled off to the landfill, may very well be due to the fact that it's teeming with bed bugs.
- Do address bed bug sightings immediately. Rental housing residents who suspect the presence of bed bugs in their unit must immediately notify the owner.
- Do not attempt to treat bed bug infestations. Under no circumstance should you attempt to eradicate bed bugs. Health hazards associated with the misapplication of traditional and non-traditional, chemical-based insecticides and pesticides poses too great a risk to you and your neighbors.
- Do comply with eradication protocol. If the determination is made that your unit is indeed playing host to bed bugs, you must comply with the bed bug eradication protocol set forth by both your owner and their designated pest management company.

MOLD INFORMATION AND PREVENTION ADDENDUM

Please note: It is our goal to maintain a quality living environment for our residents. To help achieve this goal, it is important to work together to minimize any mold growth in your dwelling. That is why this addendum contains important information for you, and responsibilities for both you and us.

1. DWELLING UNIT DESCRIPTION.

Unit No. 4-300, 164 Wentworth Loop Apt#300 (street address) in Clayton (city), North Carolina, 27527 (zip code).

2. LEASE CONTRACT DESCRIPTION.

Lease Contract Date: August 6, 2021
Owner's name: LWB Properties, LLC

Residents (list all residents): Casandra Anna Tompkins, Dustin Young

This Addendum constitutes an Addendum to the above described Lease Contract for the above described premises, and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of such Lease Contract. Where the terms or conditions found in this Addendum vary or contradict any terms or conditions found in the Lease Contract, this Addendum shall control.

3. ABOUT MOLD. Mold is found virtually everywhere in our environment—both indoors and outdoors and in both new and old structures. Molds are naturally occurring microscopic organisms which reproduce by spores and have existed practically from the beginning of time. All of us have lived with mold spores all our lives. Without molds we would all be struggling with large amounts of dead organic matter.

Mold breaks down organic matter in the environment and uses the end product for its food. Mold spores (like plant pollen) spread through the air and are commonly transported by shoes, clothing and other materials. When excess moisture is present inside a dwelling, mold can grow. A 2004 Federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention study found that there is currently no scientific evidence that the accumulation of mold causes any significant health risks for person with normally functioning immune systems. Nonetheless, appropriate precautions need to be taken.

4. PREVENTING MOLD BEGINS WITH YOU. In order to minimize the potential for mold growth in your dwelling, you must do the following:

- Keep your dwelling clean—particularly the kitchen, the bathroom(s), carpets and floors. Regular vacuuming, mopping and using a household cleaner to clean hard surfaces is important to remove the household dirt and debris that harbor mold or food for mold. Immediately throw away moldy food.
• Remove visible moisture accumulation on windows, walls, ceilings, floors and other surfaces as soon as reasonably possible. Look for leaks in washing machine hoses and discharge lines—especially if the leak is large enough for water to infiltrate nearby walls. Turn on any exhaust fans in the bathroom and kitchen before you start showering or cooking with open pots. When showering, be sure to keep the shower curtain inside the tub or fully close the shower doors. Also, the experts recommend that after taking a shower or bath, you: (1) wipe moisture off of shower walls, shower doors, the bathtub and the bathroom floor; (2) leave the bathroom door open until all moisture on the mirrors and bathroom walls and tile surfaces has dissipated; and (3) hang up your towels and bath mats so they will completely dry out.

- Promptly notify us in writing about any air conditioning or heating system problems you discover. Follow our rules, if any, regarding replacement of air filters. Also, it is recommended that you periodically open windows and doors on days when the outdoor weather is dry (i.e., humidity is below 50 percent) to help humid areas of your dwelling dry out.
• Promptly notify us in writing about any signs of water leaks, water infiltration or mold. We will respond in accordance with state law and the Lease Contract to repair or remedy the situation, as necessary.
• Keep the thermostat set to automatically circulate air in the event temperatures rise to or above 80 degrees Fahrenheit.

5. IN ORDER TO AVOID MOLD GROWTH, it is important to prevent excessive moisture buildup in your dwelling. Failure to promptly pay attention to leaks and moisture that might accumulate on dwelling surfaces or that might get inside walls or ceilings can encourage mold growth. Prolonged moisture can result from a wide variety of sources, such as:

- rainwater leaking from roofs, windows, doors and outside walls, as well as flood waters rising above floor level;
• overflows from showers, bathtubs, toilets, lavatories, sinks, washing machines, dehumidifiers, refrigerator or A/C drip pans or clogged up A/C condensation lines;
• leaks from plumbing lines or fixtures, and leaks into walls from bad or missing grouting/caulking around showers, tubs or sinks;
• washing machine hose leaks, plant watering overflows, pet urine, cooking spills, beverage spills and steam from excessive open-pot cooking;
• leaks from clothes dryer discharge vents (which can put lots of moisture into the air); and
• insufficient drying of carpets, carpet pads, shower walls and bathroom floors.

6. IF SMALL AREAS OF MOLD HAVE ALREADY OCCURRED ON NON-POROUS SURFACES (such as ceramic tile, formica, vinyl flooring, metal, wood or plastic), the federal Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) recommends that you first clean the areas with soap (or detergent) and water, let the surface dry, and then within 24 hours apply a pre-mixed, spray-on-type household biocide, such as Lysol Disinfectant®, Pine-Sol Disinfectant® (original pine-scented), Tilex Mildew Remover® or Clorox Cleanup®. (Note: Only a few of the common household cleaners will actually kill mold). Tilex® and Clorox® contain bleach which can discolor or stain. Be sure to follow the instructions on the container. Applying biocides without first cleaning away the dirt and oils from the surface is like painting over old paint without first cleaning and preparing the surface.

Always clean and apply a biocide to an area 5 or 6 times larger than any visible mold because mold may be adjacent in quantities not yet visible to the naked eye. A vacuum cleaner with a high-efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filter can be

3. The purpose of this Buy-Out Agreement is to give you the right to buy out of your Lease Contract early—subject to any special provisions in paragraph 9 below.

4. BUY-OUT PROCEDURES. You may buy out of the Lease Contract prior to the end of the lease term and cut off all liability for paying rent for the remainder of the lease term if all of the following occur:

- (a) you give us written notice of buy-out at least 60 days prior to the new termination date... (b) you specify the new termination date... (c) you are not in default under the Lease Contract... (d) you are not in default under the Lease Contract on the new termination date... (e) you move out on or before the new termination date... (f) you pay us a buy-out fee (consideration) of $ 2820.00; (g) you pay us the amount of any concessions you received when signing the Lease Contract; and (h) you comply with any special provisions in paragraph 9 below.

5. WHEN PAYABLE. The buy-out fee in paragraph 4(f) is due and payable no later than 0 days after you give us your buy-out notice. If you fail to comply with any of the procedures or requirements in this agreement after we deposit such monies, your buy-out right and this agreement will be voided automatically; and (1) any amounts you have paid under this agreement will become part of your security deposit up to the maximum statutorily allowed amount (i.e. not to exceed 2 months' rent), and (2) the lease will continue without buy-out. Then, if you move out early, you are subject to all lease remedies, including reletting fees and liability for all rents for the remainder of the original lease term.

8. MISCELLANEOUS. If moving out by the new termination date becomes a problem for you, contact us. An extension may be possible if we have not already relet the dwelling unit to a successor resident. We and any successor residents who may be leasing your unit will be relying on your moving out on or before the new termination date. Therefore, you may not hold over beyond such date without our written consent—even if it means you have to make plans for temporary lodging elsewhere. "Default" as used in paragraphs 4(c) and 4(d) of this agreement means default as defined in the Lease Contract. You will continue to be liable for any damages and any sums accruing and unpaid prior to the new termination date.

9. SPECIAL PROVISIONS. Your right of buy-out (check one) [] is or [x] is not limited to a particular fact situation. If limited, buy-out may be exercised only if the following facts (see below) occur and any described documents are furnished to us.
